COLORADO COLLEGE

20th Reunion & Homecoming, October 12-14, 2007

Heading to Rastall for that last Meal Plan lunch? Late for a Bio lecture at Olin? Heading to the track to run a few laps? Planning on hanging out with some friends at Stewart Field? Coasting back to your fraternity or sorority for some libations and MTV? What may surprise you is that while all of these things continue to occur at CC, they occur in a setting that has changed considerably since our graduation in '87. Rastall Hall has been replaced by Worner Campus Center. Olin Hall has been joined by two first-rate buildings, Russell T. Tutt Science Center and Barnes Science Center. Washburn Field is considerably improved and now serves as the backdrop for senior student housing that, without doubt, has a view of Pikes Peak that makes its occupants the most envied students on campus. Fraternities, sororities and various facilities now occupy the "East Campus" on the opposing side of Nevada Avenue - - the end result of significant planning and vision that was only hinted at while we were on campus. Despite these significant changes, the campus remains instantly recognizable and would undoubtedly bring to mind friends, professors, staff and events that left indelible impressions on each of us.

We're inviting you to reconnect with fellow classmates and resurrect some of those memories this October during the Class of 1987's 20th Reunion. We have planned a series of terrific and affordable events; a Friday night mixer at a new bar downtown and a class dinner on Saturday night that's going to put you right back in time as we're heading to Bemis Hall for our formal reunion dinner. In addition to these class-specific events, CC has arranged for various sporting events, dances and plenty of family activities that should add considerably to our memories of the weekend. Of course, several of the tried-and-true 'old haunts' remain about town and there will be plenty of opportunity to revisit those fine establishments throughout the weekend. Our goal is to host a casual, relaxing weekend that brings as many graduates as possible back with our families and friends to experience CC and Colorado at their very best!

CC has established a website specifically for the Class of '87 to help us reconnect and plan for the reunion. Take a look and let us know of your plans:
www.ColoradoCollege.edu/Alumni/HomecomingReunions/2007/87/.

We look forward to seeing you at Homecoming and until then, wish you and your families all the best.
