Dear Kristie,

What did you get out of your CC education?

A satisfying career? A best friend? An enduring love of 7-Eleven nachos?

You probably don't think about it, but you use what you learned at CC every day. Your critical thinking skills, your communications skills, your ability to meet fast deadlines — whether or not you use your actual degree, you use your CC education.

It's strange to think it has been 20 years since we were all at school together. (Scary to think that the current junior class was born the year we graduated!) Back then, we had to scrape together money to pay for Saturday night dinner when Rastall was closed. Hopefully your financial situation has improved since then, and one of the things you spend your money on is an annual donation to Colorado College.

In honor of our 20th reunion, we've all pledged to donate to the College this year. And we'd like to ask you to do so as well.

Why is it important to make an annual gift to CC?

- Tuition only covers 60% of the cost of educating a student at CC. The balance of the cost comes out of the annual giving fund.
- The College's ability to recruit students and raise money from large donors is impacted by the annual giving of the alumni; it is a factor in the U.S. News & World Report college rankings. The lower the percentage of alumni who give, the lower the ranking.
- You may think you give every year, but are you sure? Over 50% of CC alumni say they give, but only 35% actually do.

You don't have to give a lot to make a positive impact. We'd love it if you could simply donate $20 in honor of our 20th reunion. It's easy, just go to www.ColoradoCollege.edu/Giving.

The reunion happens October 12th through 14th. We've planned some great events that will give you the opportunity to catch up with old friends, plus there are all kinds of things to do on campus. And if you haven't been to campus since our last reunion in 1997, you're in for quite a surprise. It's changed (for the better). For more details on reunion events, visit the web site: www.ColoradoCollege.edu/Alumni/HomecomingReunions.

We hope to see you in October!
