

Dear Class of 2003,

Remember that cold May morning almost five years ago when Andrew Shue told you that one day your “stubs” would turn into wings and you would finally leave the nest and soar over those beautiful Colorado mountains? He said it would be magical, and it was.

May your wings carry you back to the Springs this October to celebrate your fifth year reunion with friends. Festivities will kick off on Friday, October 10th and go through Sunday, October 12, 2008.

Maybe it will rain. Maybe it will be too cold, too windy. But Shue promises us that it will be magical. It really, really will be.
