

TABLE OF CONTENTS

An Introduction From the President	ii
Executive Summary	iii
Rocky Mountain Region at a Glance	1
Challenge Essay - Home and Hope in the Rockies by Ed Marston.....	5
Rockies Perspectives - The Sonoran Institute by Ray Rasker.....	9
Rockies Perspectives - The Center for the Rocky Mountain West by Daniel Kemmis.....	10
Rockies Perspectives - The Mountain Studies Institute by Ellen R. Stein.....	11
Rockies Perspectives - The Gunnison Headwaters Conference by George Sibley.....	12
The Rocky Mountain Region - An Overview by Walter Hecox and F. Patrick Holmes.....	13
The Rockies Divided: Three Sub-Regions That Make Sense by Walter Hecox and F. Patrick Holmes.....	17
Grading the Rockies by F. Patrick Holmes and Walter Hecox
Land and Environment:
1. The Rocky Mountain Playground.....	23
2. Subdivisions and “Ranchettes” in the New Rockies.....	25
3. The Jewels of the Rockies.....	27
Social & Cultural Capital:
1. Native Born or “Cappuccino-Cowboy”?.....	29
2. Managing Immigration.....	31
3. Civic Engagement.....	33
4. Healthy Places to Live and Work.....	35
5. Education Attainment.....	37
6. Arts, Culture, and Employment in the “Creative Class”.....	39
7. The “Graying” of the Rockies.....	41
8. A Good Place to Raise Kids.....	43
Income, Employment, & Equity
1. Balanced Employment Composition.....	45
2. Small Business Vitality.....	47
3. Balanced Income Distribution.....	49
4. Distressed Counties.....	51
Grading the Rockies: Final Grades - Vibrancy and Vitality
Grading the Most “Livable” Counties in the Rockies	53
Metropolitan Counties (61 with metro areas of 50,000+).....	54
Micropolitan Counties (138 with an urban cluster between 2,500 and 50,000).....	56
Rural Counties (81 with urban concentrations below 2,500).....	60
Methods and Acknowledgements	63