INFORMATIONAL TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

Colorado College Campus Technology

Academic Year 2007-08 Data is currently being verified and finalized

Colorado College's campus-wide network, the use of which is free for the CC community and the general public, is accessible in almost all classrooms, in dorm rooms and dorm lounges. In addition to wireless connectivity to the Internet in classrooms, CC also supports other wireless area networks, such as in the campus' library. To view Colorado College's Acceptable Use Policy, please visit this website:

<http://www.coloradocollege.edu/its/pdf/usepolicy.pdf>. While students are not required to own computers and the college does not provide students with personal computers, 94% of undergraduates own their own computers. CC offers a course on robotics, but does not offer online courses or online degree programs and does not do any webcasting, digital audio or video-streaming of courses on campus.

Campus Computer Labs (as of May 2008)
