The application includes three parts: short-answer questions, a writing sample (no more than 7 pages), and three endorsements from faculty members, administrators, or current Writing Center staff.* The endorsement form is attached. You must submit your application to the Writing Center in the Learning Commons at Tutt Library by 4:00 pm on Monday, October 19, 2009. Decisions regarding hiring will be made no later than Tuesday, November 24, 2009. If you have any questions about the position or the application process, please stop by the Writing Center or call ext. 6742. We will not accept late or incomplete applications.

Please answer the following questions. (No more than 200 words per question.)

1. Why do you write?
2. What is your writing process (not what you were taught, but what you actually do)?
3. Have you ever used the Writing Center? Why or why not?
4. Have you ever taught or tutored anything? If so, describe the experience.
5. What other activities are you involved in?

*If you are a first-year or transfer student, you may also include endorsements from former college instructors, high school teachers, RAs, and other CC staff. However, at least one of your three endorsements needs to come from a CC faculty member, and no more than one endorsement may come from the Writing Center staff. Please send non-CC affiliated endorsements via email to the Coordinator of Advising and Tutoring Services at janelle.dozar@coloradocollege.edu.

Writing Center Application Endorsement Form

Applicant: _____

Course: GS 300 Theory & Practice of Peer Tutoring

The above-named student would like to enroll in the Writing Center's Theory and Practice of Peer Tutoring, which is the first step toward becoming a writing consultant. As part of the application process, the student must obtain three endorsements from faculty, administrators, or current employees of the Writing Center.
