

SPONSORED BY THRE COLORADO COLLEGE
DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY AND RACE,
ETHNICITY AND MIGRATION STUDIES

LANGUAGE OF RACISM SPEAKER EVENT

WILLIAM ANDERSON: DOCTORAL CANDIDATE AND
DENVER PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHER

Please join us for the second event of the 2020-2021 Language of Racism speaker series: “The Potential Impacts of School Language Practices on the Experience and Identity Development of Black Students” with speaker William Anderson, Denver public school teacher and doctoral candidate in Education at CU Denver. Anderson's lecture will address how raciolinguistic ideologies influence practices within schools presenting research on Black students' experiences and identity development related to school language practicesThe lecture followed by Q&A.

Registration is required to attend this event.
Please register at the link below, or by scanning
the QR code

Date: November 4th

Time: 5PM MST

Place: Zoom

Registration Link:

https://coloradocollege.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_iCpuScyzSBOhNi4RO54LvA