Classics Department: Major in Classics Checklist (minimum 9.25 units):

(A) Latin for Beginners/Greek for Beginners (2 units)

(B) 200+ level Latin/Greek (1 unit)

(C) 200+ level Latin/Greek (1 unit)

(D) 300+ level Latin/Greek (.25 unit, to be taken fall of senior year)

(E) Classics electives (either language courses or those in translation; 3 units). Students are highly encouraged to take courses in both Greek and Roman culture, as well as with all department faculty.

(F) Senior thesis (2 units, one of which must be taken in the fall of one’s senior year, the other in block 5 or earlier)

---

1 For students entering CC having placed into the 200(+) level of Latin or Greek, the minimum is 7.25 units.
List of regularly offered Classics electives (courses 1 unit unless specified):
 Starred courses indicate those classes usually taught by Classics dept. faculty

• Greek, Roman, and other ancient Mediterranean cultures
   “Introduction to Roman Literature and Archaeology” (CC 100/120 {formerly CL 115}, FYP 2 units)
   “Myth, Gender, and Metamorphosis” (CL 100/120 {formerly CL 118}, FYP 2 units)
   “Ancient Mediterranean” (CL 125)
   “Race and Ethnicity in the Ancient World” (CL 160, also HY and RM)
   “Invention of History” (CL 221, also HY)
   “The Ancient Economy” (CL 222, also EC and HY)
   “Greek and Roman Sports and Entertainment” (CL 222)
   “Gender and Sexuality in Antiquity” (CL 222, also CO and FG)
  “History of Social and Political Philosophy: Classical Visions” (CL 222, also PH)
  “The Bible: Myth & History” (CL 222, also RE)
  “Art of Greece and Rome” (CL 223, also AH)

• Greek Culture
   “Greek History and Philosophy” (CL 116, also HY and PH; 2 units)
  “Greek Philosophy” (CL 210, also PH)
   “Homer” (CL 218, also CO)
   “Origins and Early Forms of Drama” (CL 219, also DR and CO)
   “Myth and Meaning” (CL 220, also CO and FG)
   “Athenian Democracy” (CL 250, also HY)
   “The Age of Alexander the Great” (CL 252, also HY)

• Roman culture
  “Late Antiquity: Imperial Rome, Mystery Religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam” (CL 209, also AH)
   “Roman Republican History” (CL 216, also HY)
  “Byzantine Art” (CL 222, also AH)
   “Intro to Field Archaeology” (also AN)
   “Roman History: Literature and Culture of the Augustan Age” (CL 226, also HY)
   “History of the Roman Empire” (CL 236, also HY)
   “Rome, Naples, Sicily: Crossroads of the Ancient Mediterranean” (CL 222, also AH, CO, and HY; 1.5 units, summer course)