

Classics Department: Major in Classics Checklist (minimum 9.25 units¹):

(A) Latin for Beginners or Greek for Beginners (2 units)

(B) 200+ level Latin/Greek (1 unit)

(C) 200+ level Latin/Greek (1 unit)

(D) 300+ level Latin/Greek (.25 unit adjunct class, to be taken fall of senior year)

(E) Classics electives (either language courses or those in translation; 3 units).
Students are highly encouraged to take courses in both Greek and Roman culture, as well as with all department faculty.

(F) Senior thesis (2 units, one of which must be taken in the fall of one's senior year, the other in block 5 or earlier)

¹ For students entering CC having placed into the 200(+) level of Latin or Greek, the minimum is 7.25 units.

List of regularly offered Classics electives:

 Starred courses indicate those classes usually taught by Classics dept. faculty

• Greek, Roman, and other ancient Mediterranean cultures

 “Introduction to Classical Literature and Archaeology” (CC 100/120, FYP 2 units)

 “Myth, Gender, and Metamorphosis” (CC 100/120, FYP 2 units)

 “Ancient Mediterranean” (CL 125)

 “Race, Ethnicity and Prejudice in the Ancient World” (CL 160, also HY and RM)

 “Invention of History” (CL 221, also HY)

“History of Social and Political Philosophy: Classical Visions” (CL 222, also PH)

“The Bible: Myth & History” (CL 222, also RE)

 “Art of Greece and Rome” (CL 223, also AH, now typically a summer course)

 “The Ancient Economy” (CL 227, also EC and HY)

 “Gender and Sexuality in Antiquity” (CL 260, also CO and FG)

• Greek Culture

 “Greek History and Philosophy” (CL 116, also HY and PH; 2 units)

“Greek Philosophy” (CL 210, also PH)

 “Homer” (CL 218, also CO)

 “Origins and Early Forms of Drama” (CL 219, also DR and CO)

 “Myth and Meaning” (CL 220, also CO and FG)

 “Greek Sports and the Olympics” (CL 222)

 “History of Classical Greece” (CL 250, also HY)

 “The Age of Alexander the Great” (CL 252, also HY)

 “Life of the Soul” (CL 255, also CO, PH, RE)

• Roman culture

“Late Antiquity: Imperial Rome, Mystery Religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam” (CL 209, also AH)

 “Roman Republican History” (CL 216, also HY)

“Byzantine Art” (CL 222, also AH)

 “Intro to Field Archaeology” (also AN)

 “Roman Sports and Entertainment” (CL 222, also DR)

 “Roman History: Literature and Culture of the Augustan Age” (CL 226, also HY)

 “History of the Roman Empire” (CL 236, also HY)