

GREECE

Athens

 5
2025

GREEK FOR BEGINNERS

Course Number: CL101

Faculty Leader: Prof. Sanjaya Thakur

College Requirements Met: Fulfills 1 unit of language requirement for CEL/LANG: Critical Engagement through Language

Course Fee: $2.200

Introduction to reading Attic Greek, the language of ancient Athens in its political, literary, and philosophical prime. Students will acquire fluency with the language's grammar and vocabulary, enabling them to read and translate actual Greek literature (including the koine of the New Testament). In unpacking how Attic Greek works, students will simultaneously gain an ability to analyze the grammar of English and other languages. We will also learn about the history of the Greek language and its considerable influence on English's scientific vocabulary and literature.

APPLICATION WINDOW: FEB 1ST- MAR 16TH

Global Education
& Field Study