

Example Major Declaration - International Political Economy Major

How to use this document:

- The blue writing inside the form is for example guidance only. Please refer to the Catalog of Courses site or the IPE page on the Economics and Business site for both prerequisite courses for declaring the major as well as all other major requirements. What you actually enter in the Completed Units/Remaining Units columns will be unique to you.
- The orange writing explains other context and tips for completing the form correctly, and therefore ensuring your acceptance into the major the first time you complete this form. Follow them, and you will be well on your way to your major!
- Please note that declaration forms are rejected for any inaccuracies. If a form is rejected, students must restart their declaration form from scratch.

This is an Adobe Sign Workflow form: Fill, sign and submit. The Registrar's office will forward it to your Advisor and Dept Chair(s) for approval signatures

		International Economics Elective	1
		EC301 Microeconomic Theory AND EC302 Macr...	2
		Capstone Research Requirements	2
Completed Units Total:	5	Remaining Units Total:	11

Running out of room? It's fine to combine remaining units by category (i.e. "Economics Courses," electives, or subfield requirements), especially if you're not sure which courses you'll take yet.

Make sure you tally the correct number of units per course (some courses count for 2 units)

Total number of units recorded: (Completed Units Total + Remaining Units Total)	16
Number of units required for major: (Check your department's major requirements)	16

Total Units Completed + Total Units Remaining must equal Total Units Required for Major!

My totals agree:

You may check this box if your total number of units recorded are at or above the number of units required for the major. If your units are less than the required units, recheck your work above.

MAJOR DROPPED: Write "N/A" if not dropping a major (Please send a courtesy email to your former department to let them know of the change)

I fully understand the departmental requirements for this major and herewith apply for acceptance.
