

BLOCKS 3 AND 4
MÉRIDA, MÉXICO

FALL 2022
CC in Latin America

The 2022 program provides academic immersion for two blocks into Mexican and Maya cultures on the block plan, with CC faculty from different academic disciplines.

Minimum prerequisites: SP201 or placement into SP305. Both courses will be taught in Spanish

*SP 312 – Oral Practice and Composition Abroad: Cultura yucateca: visual and performing arts.
Professor Naomi Wood.*

Fulfills the Language Study and Equity & Power-Global requirement (pending).

*SO 190/SP 308 –
Topics in Sociology:
Cuerpo y territorio.
Professor Chantal Figueroa.*

Fulfills the Creative Process requirement (pending).

The application is available now on SUMMIT.
Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until April 1st, 2022.
After you submit your application you will be contacted to set up an interview.

Other questions?
Please contact Prof. Marinescu, Program Director at amarinescu@coloradocollege.edu

