

TUITION & FEES

CC PROGRAM IN LATIN AMERICA (FALL 2022)

Students pay the normal Colorado College tuition for the Fall semester. Financial aid carries over.

PROGRAM FEE:

We draw from tuition, housing, and meal plans to cover the program costs. The program fee you will pay depends on your meal and housing setup for next year:

- Students who live on campus with a full meal plan in 2022-23 pay no additional program fee.
- Students who live in campus apartments with a limited meal plan in 2022-23 will pay an additional fee of roughly $750 to allow for meal coverage in Mexico.
- Students who live off campus in 2022-23 should expect to pay a program fee of roughly $2,500 to cover housing and meal coverage while in Mexico.

AIRFARE:

Airfare costs are covered up to $800. Accepted students will have an opportunity to book their covered travel through our partner travel agents at StudentUniverse; more information will be provided to accepted students.
