

México

January 16 -March 11

Arrival in Maní, México:

BLOCK 5: SP312

Writing Practice Abroad: Tiempo y Territorio: memoria histórica resistencias en el Mayab

(Prof. Andreea Marinescu)

- Fulfills 1 unit of the AIM (Analysis and Interpretation of Meaning) requirement.
- Fulfills 1 unit of the language study requirement.

BLOCK 6: SP307

Hispanic Culture: Cine y literatura indígena en México hoy

(Prof. Andreea Marinescu)

- Fulfills 1 unit of the Equity and Power (Global) requirement.
- Fulfills 1 unit of the language study requirement.

Possible Trips Include:

Quintana Roo, Campeche, Uxmal

Brasil

March 20- May 12

Arrival Salvador, Brasil:

BLOCK 7:

PG300: Portuguese for Spanish Speakers

(Prof. Naomi Wood)

- Fulfills 1 unit of the language study requirement

BLOCK 8:

PG316/ED290: Decolonial Pedagogies of Paulo Freire

(Prof. Juan Miguel Arias)

- Fulfills 1 unit of the Equity and Power (Global) or Societies and Human Behavior requirement.

Possible Trips Include:

Cachoeira, Lençóis, Arembepe

FAQ'S

How much Spanish do I need?

Minimum requirements: successful completion of SP201 or placement into SP305.

Where will I live?

Students will live with host families.

How much will this semester cost?

Students pay their normal tuition for the semester to CC. The program fee replaces the usual charge of room and board.

Round trip airfare, up to maximum limit, is included.

How do I apply?

Information sessions with course descriptions, deadlines, and interview information will be begin in Blocks 5&6, 2026.

Interviews will begin in Block 6 on a rolling basis. Please contact Professor Naomi Wood with questions.

