

Join in a Campus Community Dialogue

Students, faculty, and staff, are invited to a campus community dialogue titled “Unmasking CC’s Racial Climate: Seeking Dr. King’s Beloved Community,” from 3-4:30 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 18, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, in Bemis Great Hall. The dialogue, facilitated by staff from The Butler Center, will provide an opportunity for campus community members to discuss their understanding of the campus climate, consider how individuals may influence it, and make commitments to improve it. All are invited to attend and share in this important conversation.
