Meeting Protocols
Meeting participants and attendees will:

- Be open minded to different perspectives/opinions,
- Be respectful of each other and other's perspectives; not interrupt or dominate,
- Have an opportunity to voice thoughts and opinions; all input is important and will be considered, and
- Stay involved/engaged throughout the study, attending all meetings.
- Meetings will start/finish on time, or the group will agree to an extension
- Working Group meetings are open to the public. Discussions during meetings is reserved for Working Group members; however, opportunity for public comment and to address questions will be included in the agendas

Ground Rules for Collaboration
While making recommendations together to inform the TMP to benefit pedestrian, motorist and bicyclist safety in and around the college as well as the community as a whole, we commit to:

- Resolve conflicts directly, openly, honestly; without personal attack
- Consider community-wide interests beyond individual interests
- Achieve group informed consent of the recommendations
- Bring constituent’s recommendations/input forward and communicate to them the status/progress of the study
- Refer to “pedestrians” to include students, families, faculty, staff, community members, and citizens in general
