Colorado College invites nominations and applications for the position of vice president for advancement. Located at the foot of Pikes Peak in Colorado Springs, Colorado College is a highly selective, liberal arts institution with a student body of 2,034 students from across the country and around the world. The college operates on the innovative Block Plan, in which its students study one course at a time in intensive 3½-week segments.

Reporting to President Jill Tiefenthaler, the vice president provides strategic direction and leadership for all of the development, advancement services, alumni and parent relations, and annual giving functions and a staff of approximately 40. Total giving for fiscal year 2011 totaled $28.8 million. The College has an endowment of more than $507 million and 26,000 alumni of record.

The search process is currently underway and will continue until the position is filled. For best consideration, please submit materials before June 1, 2012. Nominations, inquiries, and expressions of interest should be forwarded, in confidence, to:

Susan VanGilder, Principal
Storbeck / Pimentel & Associates, LLC
coloradocollegevp@storbeckpimentel.com

For more information, please visit Colorado College’s home page at www.coloradocollege.edu.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER
The Colorado College welcomes members of all minority groups and reaffirms its commitment not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability in its educational programs, activities, and employment policies.