State of the Rockies Conference Workshop:

Connecting Colorado College to Local Immigrant Communities

Tuesday, April 8th

4:30-6:30

Gates Common Room, Palmer Hall

Colorado College Campus

Colorado College and its student body possess many resources for helping those groups in our local community who are working toward immigrant integration. ELL programs and immigration support organizations, in turn, represent excellent opportunities for CC students to practice a second language or engage in community activism. The goal of this workshop is to help strengthen the connection between the CC student body and other CC organizations to the local groups, schools, and individuals who work with immigrants in Colorado Springs on a daily basis. Through the workshop, CC students will learn about potential internship, volunteer, and employment opportunities while local organizations will learn of existing CC programs and how their services/students can be utilized. All members of the Colorado Springs community and surrounding areas are encouraged to participate!

Participants will include representatives from:

Colorado College State of the Rockies Project
Colorado College Office of Civic Engagement
The Pikes Peak Immigrant and Refugee Collaborative
Colorado Immigrant Rights Coalition
Colorado Springs School District 11
Lutheran Family Services
Colorado College Student Body
Colorado College Career Center

Food will be provided
