

Healthy Mountain Communities, Carbondale, CO July 18, 2006

HMC organizes ongoing forums for regional dialogue, collaboration and networking, and offers a package of data, strategic planning and decision support tools to help community leaders better understand issues and implement solutions at the local and regional level. Project Director Colin Laird helped the Rockies Team understand current issues facing Western Colorado as well as the obstacles and solutions associated with collaboration among multiple political entities.

Healthy Mountain Communities

The Roaring Fork & Colorado River Valleys

