PIFP Mentor Profile

Name: Emily Wattman-Turner

How would you like fellows to contact you? Email: Emily.wattmanturner@gmail.com

CC graduation year: 2012

Other education: None

Current employment position: People Ops Specialist, Galvanize

Experience/areas of interest: Politics, Government, Public Policy, Corporate Social Responsibility, Community Building

What do you value about the nonprofit sector? The ability to leverage cross-sector partners to create positive social change.

Why have you chosen to be a PIFP mentor? PIFP helped me launch my career in Denver. I had an incredible experience with my mentor match [as a PIFP fellow] and want to give recent grads the same experience.

What’s your favorite book or movie? This is always changing, but right now, Interpreter of Maladies by Jhumpa Lahiri and Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

What is something most people would be surprised to know about you? I participated in a live, onstage dating game at the Globe Theater in London, and although I wasn’t chosen as the winner, walked away with some sweet Shakespearean love quote magnets.
