Organization Name: Chinook Fund
Location (City/State): Denver, CO
Organization’s Website: www.chinookfund.org

Yearlong Fellowship (June 2016-May 2017)
Summer Fellowship (June-August 2016)

Organization’s Mission and Goals (50 words or less):
Chinook Fund supports community organizations working on issues of racial, social and economic justice in Colorado.

We are a community foundation that pools the resources of individuals and businesses to support the best of peer-reviewed grassroots organizations working for social change to improve the quality of life for all Coloradans.

Title of PIFP Fellow: Chinook Fund Summer Fellow

Primary responsibilities of the PIFP fellow (please list, 100 words or less):
1. With guidance from staff and support from a partnering foundation, the fellow will organize, execute and evaluate a one-day convening of Chinook Fund grantees in a rural or non-Denver Metro community where grantees will receive professional development to further their work and where potential grantees will receive information on how to apply for Chinook funding.
2. Gather and compile grantee stories for publicity and fundraising purposes.
3. Learn about and assist with day-to-day community foundation operations including working with grantees, donors and volunteers, and assisting as needed with the Giving Project (a new fundraising model that is open to a wide range of donors, activists and volunteers interested in social change philanthropy using a wide and deep political analysis).
The work will be carried out over the course of 10 weeks. Ideally, the fellow would start in mid-June and end on or around August 13 after the grantee convening.

Qualifications sought in the PIFP fellow (please list, 100 words or less):

- Applicants must be interested in or familiar with social justice and anti-oppression frameworks, in particular in working with oppressed or marginalized communities.
- Applicants must be interested in taking the lead with organizing an event in a rural or non-Denver Metro community using community contacts and a partnering foundation to secure space & logistics and recruit grantees to participate.
- Applicants must be interested in grassroots social change groups and in interacting with grantees that are constituent-led, community-wide and leading to long-lasting social change.
- Applicants would ideally have familiarity with planning events from start to finish and summarizing lessons learned from the process for future use.

Candidates who speak Spanish would be ideal although not required. Candidates who enjoy collecting and telling stories/conducting interviews and presenting them in written or media format would be ideal although not required.
