

Summit County Mountain Pine Beetle Task Force Meeting July 20th 2006

Rockies Researcher Carissa Look traveled to Frisco to participate in a meeting of the Summit County Mountain Pine Beetle Task Force. The group seeks to assist local home owners and property management organizations in reducing the impact of the pine beetle infestation, specifically related to the increased fire risk. In attendance were state politicians, environmental advocates, and representatives for the insurance industry and local tourist industry.

