DEPARTMENTAL AWARDS

ANTHROPOLOGY, presented by Professor Christina Leza

H. Marie Wormington Award

The H. Marie Wormington Award in Anthropology was established in 1979 by Wormington and her husband, George D. Volk, to honor the outstanding graduating senior in anthropology. Wormington, who died in 1994, was a former curator of archaeology at the Denver Museum of Natural History and an adjunct professor at Colorado College. Her own distinguished career was devoted to the Paleo-Indian period of New World prehistory, but it was the couple's desire to recognize student achievements in the discipline as a whole. The criteria for the Wormington Award are a high academic record, notable aptitude for and accomplishment in field research, leadership, participation in the department's programs, and dedication to the discipline of anthropology.

Recipients: Tianyi Bai, Ankita Sharma

Courtney Cusick Memorial Prize

The Courtney Cusick Memorial Prize was created in 2003 in memory of anthropology major Courtney Cusick, who died tragically in an automobile accident in January 2002, in the middle of her senior year. An avid and accomplished naturalist even before entering college, Cusick left her friends, fellow students, and professors impressed with her hunger for knowledge and dedication to serious academic study. The Cusick Prize is awarded for the outstanding senior paper in anthropology.

Recipient: Angelina Chen

Department of Anthropology Professionalization Prize

This prize is awarded to Anthropology majors and minors who demonstrate success in professional development, such as through participation in academic conferences and campus leadership positions, as well as plans for future professional development (application for professional programs, professional development workshops, etc.). Students interested in receiving this award will apply by submitting a short description of their professional development achievements, their plans for further professional development, and how the field of anthropology has influenced their professional development.

Recipient: Anabella Owens

ART, presented by Professor Rachel M. Paupeck

Outstanding Senior Thesis in Art Studio

Recipient: Deming Lee Haines

Outstanding Senior Thesis in Architecture and Integrative Design

Recipient: Charles Winston Fox

Mary Chenoweth Award

Mary Chenoweth taught art at Colorado College from 1957 through 1983. She is remembered as a dedicated artist and free spirit whose generosity, enthusiasm, and wit enriched the lives of her students and colleagues. When she retired, members of the Class of 1983 and others established a fund in her honor. Each year, a book is given to the graduating senior art major who best exemplifies Professor Mary Chenoweth's talent, spirit, and dedication to art.

Recipient: Abigail Elise Walz

ASIAN STUDIES, presented by Professor Vibha Kapuria-Foreman

Excellence in Asian Studies

The Asian Studies faculty wishes to honor its exceptional students with this prize, which celebrates their high academic achievement in Asian Studies and their outstanding contributions to the success of this program.

Recipients: Nicolette Anabella Gordillo-LaRiviere, Ruixue Zhou

CHEMISTRY & BIOCHEMISTRY,

presented by Professor Donald R. Clayton

Otis A. and Margaret T. Barnes Departmental Service Award

This award was established in 1952 by the Otis A. and Margaret T. Barnes Trust in honor of the chemistry major who, in the judgment of the Chemistry Department faculty, has contributed the most in helping and furthering the chemistry program at Colorado College. It includes a one-year membership in the American Chemical Society.

Recipients: Sriya A Sharma, Bryan Butler Swanson

First-Year Chemistry Award

This award consists of the latest edition of the "CRC Handbook of Chemistry and Physics," and is given to the first-year student, regardless of major, who is deemed to have been the most outstanding student in chemistry in their first year. The handbook is supplied by the publisher, CRC Press, and has been given nationally for many years.

Recipients: Elsa Hoff, Victoria Rosa, Adam Keim

William C. Champion Prize in Organic Chemistry

Professor Champion (CC 1959-1993) was loved by his colleagues and students for his knowledge of organic chemistry; his compassion as a teacher, advisor, and friend; and his high ethical standards. This award, in his memory, honors the most outstanding student in courses in organic chemistry (any combination of Chemistry 250, 251, 155, 255, 351, and 352) taken during the previous year.

Recipient: Alondra Reyes Diaz

Outstanding Senior Award in Biochemistry

This award is given to a graduating senior, based on scholastic achievement in biochemistry.

Recipient: Sriya A Sharma

Outstanding Senior Award in Chemistry

This award is given to a graduating senior, based on scholastic achievement in chemistry.

Recipients: Isobel Knight Hensley, Westly Hope Joseph

ACS Analytical Chemistry Award

This award goes to a junior who has excelled in analytical chemistry courses and whose plans for a science career promise further work in this field. The award, sponsored by the American Chemical Society analytical division, includes a subscription to the ACS journal Analytical Chemistry.

Recipient: Ayush Chitrakar

ACS Organic Chemistry Award

This award is intended to recognize a senior student who has displayed a significant aptitude for organic chemistry and to encourage further interest in the field. The award, sponsored by the American Chemical Society organic division, includes a certificate from the division chair, and a year membership to the Organic Division of ACS.

Recipient: Judy Wang

CLASSICS, presented by Professor Sanjaya Thakur

Dr. John Bryant and Miriam Gile Hartwell Classics Prize

The prize was established in 1981 to honor students who have displayed unusual interest and ability in the study of the classics. Hartwell, a friend of the college staff and lover of the classics, graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Yale in 1900, received an M.D. from Harvard in 1904, and practiced surgery for many years in Colorado Springs. He married Miriam Gile, a daughter of Moses Clement Gile, professor of classics at CC from 1892 to 1916, whose name is perpetuated in a chair at the college.

Recipient: Griffin Tyson Fleischaker

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE,

presented by Professor Corinne L. Scheiner

Excellence in Comparative Literature

The comparative literature faculty wishes to commend its exceptional students with this prize. It thereby recognizes their high academic achievements in coursework, creativity in senior theses, as well as linguistic abilities and general personal contributions to the continuing success of this program.

Recipient: Inez Cassandra Olivas

Robert E. Rubin Award in Political Economy

This award is given to the outstanding senior graduate in international political economy.

Recipient: Charles Mattocks White

Robert E. Rubin Award in Mathematical Economics

This award is given to the outstanding senior graduate in mathematical economics.

Recipients: Bridget Hannah Galaty, Ava Marjan Kazemi

Robert William Kaye Prize

The Robert William Kaye Prize is presented to the outstanding economics major with strong performance in business courses. Robert Kaye was a business major in the Class of 1941. He served his country in World War II in the U.S. Marine Corps and was killed in action in March 1944. This award was established by the family and friends of Captain Kaye.

Recipients: Christopher James Pleasance, Julia Bazavluk

Kenneth J. Curran Award

The Kenneth J. Curran Award is the result of Curran's deep commitment to the liberal arts ideal. It is given to the graduate in economics with the highest academic average in courses taken in the divisions of humanities and natural sciences, with a minimum of nine units outside the Department of Economics and Business.

Recipient: Zihan Zhu

Kenneth J. and Elizabeth Hare Curran Award

The Kenneth J. and Elizabeth Hare Curran Award is given each year to the outstanding senior graduate in economics. The award is given in memory of Professor Kenneth J. Curran and his wife, Elizabeth Hare Curran. He was a beloved teacher of economics, chairman of the department, and dean of the college.

Recipient: Justine Olivia Miller

EDUCATION, presented by Professor Howard Drossman

Outstanding Academic Achievement

The Outstanding Academic Achievement award is presented to the graduating education major whose academic achievements best reflect the department's learning outcomes, as demonstrated by a minimum GPA of 3.5 in the major and a high-quality thesis. Further, this student consistently exemplified the department's core values of inclusivity, communication, and collaboration during their time at Colorado College.

Recipient: Claire Margaret Kite

Excellence in Undergraduate Research

The Excellence in Undergraduate Research award is presented to the graduating education major whose thesis meets scholarly expectations for peer-reviewed publication. This thesis reflects the department's examination of teaching and learning within economical, political, historical, and/or social frameworks. Such a thesis demonstrates excellent command of disciplinary writing conventions and deep familiarity with research methodologies and analytic techniques.

Recipient: Maxwell L. Schubert

Excellence in Graduate Research

The Excellence in Graduate Research award is presented to the master's student whose thesis meets scholarly expectations for peer-reviewed publication. Such a thesis demonstrates excellent command of disciplinary writing conventions, appropriate application of action research methodologies, and a deep commitment to improving pedagogical practices in Pk-12 education.

Recipients: Cassidy Fahey, Jubilee Rivera-Hernandez

Award for Excellence in Teacher Education

The Education Department honors an exemplary teacher education candidate as they are about to leave Colorado College and enter the teaching profession. This award is to the student who best combines overall excellence in their academic and education programs with outstanding performance in student teaching.

HEALTH PROFESSIONS,

presented by Jane M. Byrnes, Health Professions Advising Manager

Caduceus Award

The Caduceus Award is a community service and community activity award that is given by the Health Professions Office for outstanding student involvement. This award is not given annually, but is given to honor the student who uses their innovation, creativity, overall character, and drive to make a difference on the campus and in the community. The Caduceus, the universal symbol of medicine, the wand of Hermes reaffirms our commitment to these ideals.

Recipient: Tayla M Wheeler

Frank Henry John Figge Award

The Frank Henry John Figge Award was established in 1964 by Frank Henry J. Figge of the Class of 1927. Figge's purpose in establishing this award was to recognize outstanding students at Colorado College at the earliest stages of their medical career. Figge was a distinguished medical scientist and author, and for many years was the chairman of the department of anatomy at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. This is given each year to an outstanding Colorado College senior who has been accepted into medical school. The recipient of this award is selected in recognition for scholarship and exemplary performance in pursuit of a career as a physician.

Recipients: Faith Sun-Mi Kim, Bryan Butler Swanson

Mahony Award in Sports Medicine, presented by Angie Matson-Rufenacht, Assistant Athletic Trainer

Established in 2006, the Mahony Award in Sports Medicine honors the senior pre-med or allied health student who demonstrates academic achievement and clinical potential for a career in medicine or allied health. Established by team physician Thomas H. Mahony III, M.D., Class of 1967, and wife Jan, Class of 1968, the award recognizes student dedication to and involvement with the college's Sports Medicine Program.

Recipient: Emileigh Grace Rafidi

HISTORY, presented by Professor Bryan Rommel-Ruiz

William R. Hochman Prize for Distinguished Student Research & Writing in History

This award was established to honor the late Professor Emeritus William R. Hochman of the Department of History. It supports an annual award for a student or students whose senior thesis or essay best represents Bill's advocacy of fresh critical approaches to sources and lucid written argument. Professor Hochman was a vital member of the CC community for over six decades and was the chair of the History Department for many years. He pushed his students to tackle the key issues of the time: the balances and battles between individual freedom and religious, social, and political authority.

Recipient: Jacob Jaron Roschelle

Clyde E. Augustus Duniway Prize

A Stanford University history professor turned administrator, Duniway served as president of the Universities of Montana and Wyoming, and Colorado College from 1917 to 1923. At Colorado College, his efforts to raise academic standards provoked a storm of student protest. The Duniway prize recognizes a history major's strong achievement in history courses and contributions to the department.

Steven Janke Prize in Computer Science

Steven Janke is the founder of the Computer Science program at Colorado College. He retired in 2016 after decades of service and leadership in the department. This award is named in honor of his brilliant teaching and scholarship at Colorado College. The award is given to the graduating senior who best demonstrates unusual talent and achievements in computer science, an unusual breadth and depth of accomplishments, and high grades in computer science courses taken at Colorado College.

Recipient: Ely Samuel Merenstein

Grace Hopper Award in Computer Science

The Grace Hopper Award in Computer Science goes to a computer science major who demonstrates an unusual commitment to the computer science community.

Recipient: Brianna Peyton Fuentes

Thomas Post Rawles Mathematics Prize

The Thomas Post Rawles Prize is awarded each year on the basis of a competitive exam. The endowment for this fund was established in 1959 by Thomas H. Rawles in memory of his son, Thomas Post Rawles.

Recipients: John Thanh Le, Lily Meshel Salzman

Florian Cajori Award

The Florian Cajori Award in mathematics and computer science has been awarded since 1986 on those occasions when the department judges a graduating major to have shown unusual achievement and interest in mathematics or computer science. The award is named in honor of Florian Cajori, a prominent mathematician and professor of mathematics at Colorado College from 1898 to 1918.

Recipients: Ying Wang, Abigail Ezell

Fearless Award

Awarded to the student who submits the best collection of summaries of Fearless Friday Talks.

Recipient: Ely Samuel Merenstein

MOLECULAR BIOLOGY, presented by Professor Olivia Hatton

Alfred W. Alberts Summer Research Prize

The Alfred W. Alberts Summer Research Prize is awarded to a deserving student who will conduct summer research in chemistry or molecular biology. Awarded by the Chemistry and Molecular Biology departments.

Recipient: Cade C. Thumann

Laboratory Award in Molecular Biology

This award is made to a senior molecular biology major whose interests and coursework are mainly in the area of laboratory-based biology. The criteria for selecting a recipient for this award are: grades in biology courses with a laboratory component, performance in lab-based research, preferably for a senior thesis, and plans for post-graduate work or study.

Recipients: Carissa Adora Sherman, Magdalena Sotelo, Yuzhu Cheng

Mary Alice Hamilton Award in Molecular Biology

For many years this award has recognized a top graduating biology major, which is based on academic performance, research, and prospects for a successful career in biology. After the retirement of Professor Mary Alice Hamilton from the Biology Department in 1977, the Biology Department named this award in Professor Hamilton's honor to recognize her 27 years as a devoted faculty member in the department.

Recipient: Allie Samantha Kreitman

MUSIC, presented by Professor Susan Grace

Max Lanner Prize for Excellence in Instrumental Music

This award was established in honor of Professor Max Lanner, who taught at Colorado College from 1946 to 1975, and was chair of the Music Department from 1951 to 1968. Known nationally as a distinguished concert pianist, he performed widely in solo recitals, chamber music concerts, and as a soloist with orchestras, including five appearances with the Colorado Springs Symphony.

Recipients: John Thanh Le, Emmett Tucker

Marie Clough Gillis Award for Excellence in Vocal Music

This award was established in memory of Marie Clough Gillis, member of the Colorado College Class of 1918. The award was established in 1989 by her nieces in honor of her love of vocal music.

Recipients: Lucy Lois MacGowan, Ely Samuel Merenstein

David and Karen Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Music

David Cowperthwaite was a member of the Colorado College Class of 1960 and his wife, Karen, was enrolled as a member of the Class of 1962 when they were killed by lightning during a mountain expedition in 1960. The David and Karen Smith Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Music was instituted by their parents in their memory in 1962, the year Karen would have graduated.

Recipients: Kyrie Elise Newby, Isaak James Belongia

NEUROSCIENCE, presented by Professor Lori L. Driscoll

Shearn Award in Neuroscience

The Shearn Award in Neuroscience, named in honor of Psychology Professor Don Shearn, is awarded to an outstanding neuroscience thesis student chosen by the neuroscience advisors.

Recipients: Jacob Adin Dodelson, Hyunsoo Shin, Isabel Leadbeater, Carlton Davis Moeller

ORGANISMAL BIOLOGY & ECOLOGY, presented by Professor Mark Wilson

Richard and Reba Beidleman Award

Upon his retirement in 1988, after 31 years in the Biology Department, Professor Beidleman established this award from funds he received from the Burlington Northern Outstanding Teacher Award. The Beidleman Award is given annually to a student who has demonstrated, through classroom and fieldwork, the greatest potential for becoming a professional ecologist or field biologist. In 1990, after the tragic death of Professor Beidleman's wife in an automobile accident, the Biology Department added Reba's name to the award in recognition of her many contributions to environmental preservation in the Colorado Springs area.

Recipients: Heather Paris Rolph, Emily M. Vierling

Jason Wilkes Memorial Biology Award

The Jason Wilkes Memorial Award is intended to recognize an outstanding student of color majoring in biology. This award was started by Lorna Wilkes in memory of her beloved son, Jason Wilkes, Class of 1993, who died in a climbing accident at the start of his senior year at Colorado College, and his lifelong interest in nature and the environment.

Recipients: Lina M. Farias, Karla N. Iruegas, Josh M. Felton

Enderson Award in Conservation Biology

The Enderson Award in Conservation in Biology was established by the department to honor Professor Jim Enderson at his retirement. Professor Enderson joined the Biology Department in 1962, long before it was fashionable to call oneself a "conservation biologist." Throughout his career, research centered on the precipitous declines of birds of prey, especially the peregrine falcon. He was the first to breed the temperate North American peregrine in captivity, a line used extensively in restoration of the western population. He served on several recovery teams and working groups for endangered species. At Colorado College he inspired students through independent projects to pursue careers from botany to ornithology, in the lab and in the field. In keeping with his scholarship and breadth as a biologist, the Enderson Award honors a junior or senior biology major who, in the opinion of the faculty, has shown commitment and productivity in an original research project in conservation biology. Candidates are eligible if their work has conservation implications, whether the focus is molecular, organismic, ecosystem, lab, or field.

Recipients: Sarah Elizabeth Lloyd, Matthew Daniel Luzincourt

Mary Alice Hamilton Award in Organismal Biology and Ecology

For many years the Biology Department has recognized the top graduating biology major, which is based on academic performance, undergraduate research in both lab and field studies, and prospects for a successful career in biology. After the retirement of Professor Mary Alice Hamilton from the Biology Department in 1977, the department named this award in Professor Hamilton's honor to recognize her 27 years as a devoted faculty member.

Recipients: Raven Ellen Ward, Nicholas C Penzel

Laboratory Award in Organismal Biology and Ecology

This award is made to a senior organismal biology and ecology major whose interests and coursework are mainly in the area of laboratory-based biology. The criteria for selecting a recipient for this award are: grades in biology courses with a laboratory component, performance in lab-based research, preferably for a senior thesis, and plans for postgraduate work or study.

Recipient: Natalie Grace Colao

PHILOSOPHY, presented by Professor John H. Riker

J. Glenn Gray Award

J. Glenn Gray, who died in 1977, was a distinguished member of the Colorado College Philosophy Department for many years. He believed in the civilizing function of philosophical inquiry and dedicated his life to inculcating its values in his students. This award is supported by the J. Glenn and Ursula Gray Memorial Fund and honors those students who share Professor Gray's passion for philosophy and best demonstrate his skill and sensitivity at philosophical analysis.

Recipients: Yumiko Gabriela Gonzalez Rios, Molly Orkand Lovett

PHYSICS, presented by Professor Kristine Lang

David and Karen Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Physics

David Cowperthwaite was a member of the Colorado College class of 1960 and his wife, Karen, was enrolled as a member of the class of 1962 when they were killed by lightning during a mountain expedition in 1960. The David and Karen Smith Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Physics was instituted by their parents in their memory in 1962, the year Karen would have graduated.

Recipient: Marta Nowotka

Wilbur H. Wright Memorial Prize

This award was established in memory of Professor Wilbur Wright, a student at Colorado College in 1938 and a member of the faculty from 1956 to 1984, for his contributions to the Physics Department, his many Colorado College students, and to the college community. This award is for a graduating physics major or majors who exemplify Wright's standards and interests in physics and in academic work outside the department. That is, the award winner or winners should show an enthusiasm for the study of physics by hard work and achievement, though they need not have the highest GPA. Similar efforts in a discipline outside physics should show an understanding of the importance of the liberal arts for a science student.

Recipient: Benjamin Thomas Brandt

POLITICAL SCIENCE, presented by Professor Dana E. Wolfe

Edith Bramhall Award

This award honors Edith Bramhall, who taught political science at Colorado College from 1920 to 1946. She was one of the first women to earn a Ph.D. in political science in the United States. The award is given annually to a student whom the political science faculty deem the outstanding scholar in the department.

Recipients: Clayton C. Pierce, Nate Hochman

Fred Sondermann Award

This award honors Fred A. Sondermann, who taught in the Political Science Department from 1953 to 1978. Professor Sondermann was noted not only for teaching and scholarship, but also for service to the Colorado Springs community. The award is given annually for overall achievement and contribution to the department.

Recipients: Taylor Shanese Hawkins, Ian Michael Roberson

PSYCHOLOGY, presented by Professor Tomi-Ann Roberts

William Arthur Blakely Memorial Award

The William Arthur Blakely Award is financed through funds provided by the family and friends of Blakely, who was a member of the Psychology Department from 1931 to 1959 and chair during most of that period. The award is presented to a student who shows exceptional promise for a career in psychology.

Recipients: Maya C. Sikora, Yang Huang

Cornelia Manley Sabine Award

This award is presented annually to the outstanding graduating psychology senior on behalf of Cornelia Sabine, Class of 1949, a longtime supporter of Colorado College and the Psychology Department. This award serves as a tribute to Sabine, who had a long and distinguished career in public service as a psychologist, working with both children and adults in Colorado. After receiving a bachelor's degree in music from Northwestern University, Sabine and her husband, Paul, moved to Colorado Springs in 1947, where she obtained a B.A., magna cum laude, and an M.A. in human behavior from Colorado College. She subsequently earned an educational specialist degree from Stanford University, and became a licensed clinical psychologist in Colorado Springs, where she maintained a private practice for 30 years. Her advice to students was to use their knowledge of psychology to bring peace and understanding into relationships in our fractious modern world.

Recipients: Alexia Rose Preston, Yijia Wang, Carolina Michelle Tronik Pallas

RACE, ETHNICITY, AND MIGRATION STUDIES,

presented by Professor Dwanna L. McKay

Adrienne Seward and Victor Nelson-Cisneros Award in Race and Ethnic Studies

This award is presented to a student who has shown a commitment to deepen their understanding of the issues of race and ethnicity, as well as their complex social, economic, and epistemic ramifications in a national and transnational context.

Recipients: Tarin Karimbux, Michael Fitzhugh Gorman, Anya Isabelle Steinberg, Maysie Leigh Poland, Lindsey Whitman Downie, Natalia Lisa Juliano, Sierra Ganita Takushi

SOCIOLOGY, presented by Professor Eric S. Popkin

W.E.B. DuBois Award for Excellence in Sociology

The W.E.B. DuBois Award for Excellence in Sociology is awarded annually to a graduating senior who has excelled in their coursework and made significant contributions to the life of the department, the college, or toward social change in the wider community.

Recipients: Cameron Timothy Pedro Mongoven, Miriam Loughborough Brown

SOUTHWEST STUDIES,

presented by Professor Santiago I. Guerra

Joel P. Benezet Prize in Southwest Studies

The Joel P. Benezet Prize in Southwest Studies recognizes outstanding achievement in Southwest Studies by a graduating senior who has majored or minored in the program. The prize was established in 2003 through a bequest from Louis Benezet, a former president of Colorado College. The prize honors the memory of his son, Joel, who was killed in 1963 while enrolled as an undergraduate student at Dartmouth. Recipients of this award are selected by members of the Southwest Studies Program Faculty on the basis of academic record, quality of the senior thesis, and presence in the program.

Recipient: Brianna Peyton Fuentes

SPANISH & PORTUGUESE,

presented by Professor Naomi P. Wood

Award in Excellence in Spanish

This award is to recognize the excellent work on honors theses in the area of Hispanic studies.

Recipients: Sallie Ann Hatfield, Emily Hidalgo, Olivia Amore Petipas

Felisa Llorente Award

This award was established in honor of Felisa Llorente, who was the unofficial “mother” of the Spanish House for many years. She was generous with her time and talents, helping students to improve their Spanish and feeding many of them, both physically and intellectually. Llorente made costumes for plays and supported all activities of the Romance Languages Department. She was a generous, warm-hearted woman who will long be remembered.

Recipients: Shaian A. Gutiérrez, Brett Elise Wilsey

THEATRE AND DANCE, presented by Professor Tom Lindblade

Broadway Theatre League Award

In 1965 the Broadway Theatre League, in liquidating its assets, offered a donation to Colorado College indicating a preference that it be used to further theatre on the campus. Since then, this award is given to an outstanding student or students in the Theatre and Dance Department.

Recipient: Ankita Sharma

Pamela Riley Prize

During her 11 years at Colorado College, Pamela Riley taught and directed in the Theatre and Dance Department. Our students loved her because of her high performance standards, her infectious energy, her fearless dedication, and her warm good nature. The Pamela Riley Prize is given to the graduating senior who has contributed similar qualities of devoted service and excellence to our program.

Recipients: Abigail Erin Melinda Susan Walls, Melissa Alexandra Manuel

Award for Innovation in Performance Design

In 2014, the theatre and dance faculty members inaugurated an award in performance design for an outstanding student who has shown passion, innovation and dedication in theatrical design. The student also will have actively participated in the department’s productions and in the study of performance.

Recipient: Daniel Robert Archibald

ALL-COLLEGE AWARDS

Abel J. and Lucy Phinney Gregg Award, presented by Kate S. Holbrook, Chaplain

In the first half of this century, Abel J. Gregg was a leader in the YMCA, an organization that sought to break down barriers and offer a new global vision. A strong proponent of higher education, Lucy Phinney Gregg earned her master's degree at the age of 60 and served as mentor to countless undergraduate students. In their names, the college awards a prize to a student or students who have demonstrated academic excellence, critical religious interest, and a commitment to serve the community.

Recipients: Ilana Sarah Rosenberg, Brandon Chavin Chan, Lilith Miriam Shapiro

presented by Amy M.Y. Hill

This award is given to a sophomore or junior who is an outstanding up-and-coming student in the campus activities programs and has shown high academic accomplishment. Selection is based upon commitment to all aspects of campus programs, leadership within the various campus committees, and dedication to the co-curricular mission of the Campus Activities Office. This student demonstrates both active involvement in campus activities at Colorado College and the potential leadership to redefine and expand the programs themselves.

Recipient: Maddi S. Schink

presented by Amy M.Y. Hill

This award is given to the outstanding student in the campus activities programs. Selection is based upon commitment to all aspects of campus programs, leadership within the various campus committees, and a dedication to the co-curricular mission of the Campus Activities Office. This student has not only shown active involvement in campus activities throughout their career here at Colorado College, but has redefined and expanded the programs themselves.

Ruth Barton Award,

presented by Miriam L. Brown and Arielle C. Gordon

The Ruth Barton Award was established in 1996 to recognize Ruth Barton's dedication to student journalism at the college. In some years, it may be given to a member of the faculty, staff, or administration who contributes significant time and effort to student journalism at Colorado College. In other years it may be given to a student who has demonstrated excellence both in the academic study of journalism and in contribution to student publications.

Recipient: Esteban Nemecio Martinez Candelaria

E.K. Gaylord Award,

presented by Miriam L. Brown and Arielle C. Gordon

This award was established in honor of E. K. Gaylord, a member of the Class of 1897 and president of the Oklahoma Publishing Company until his death in 1974 at the age of 101. Gaylord was a generous supporter of Colorado College during his lifetime and served for many years as a trustee of the college. Because of his own career in journalism, he took a special interest in student publications. For that reason, the E. K. Gaylord Award is given each year to a junior or senior for continuing contributions to Colorado College publications.

Recipients: Isabel R. Hicks, Yumiko Gabriela Gonzalez Rios

presented by Professor Olivia Hatton

This prize is given to a woman student in the natural sciences who exemplifies Barbara Whitten's model of achieving personal scientific excellence while helping others do the same. Personal scientific excellence is a combination of an excellent academic record in the natural sciences, and/or exceptional research in a scientific field. The recipient should also demonstrate a significant commitment to the advancement of women or underrepresented groups in the sciences through scholarly, community, pedagogical, or other work.

Recipient: Allie Samantha Kreitman

Marianne Stoller Award, presented previously by Karen Rubin

Marianne Stoller taught in Colorado College's anthropology department for 29 years and helped found the College's southwest studies program in 1980, the first regional interdisciplinary program in the country. Professor Stoller also served on the Board of Managers for the Woman's Educational Society, also known as WES, a separate nonprofit that supports the students of Colorado College with scholarships, mentoring and other support. In support of WES, and as a native of the San Luis Valley, Professor Stoller helped organize and lead many tours of the southwest and other regions, for the purpose of raising scholarship funds for WES. In recognition of Marianne Stoller's legacy, the Board of the Woman's Educational Society presents this award to a graduating WES Scholar who is named the Marianne Stoller Scholar.

Recipient: Maeve O'Meara

AWARDS PRESENTED BY CO-PRESIDENT MIKE EDMONDS

ANN RICE MEMORIAL AWARD

Harold and Miriam Rice established the Ann Rice Memorial Award in 1950, after their only daughter died suddenly of a rare blood disease. Ann would have been in the class of 1954. She had been a first-year student at Colorado College, her mother's alma mater, for only five weeks. When Harold passed away in 1986, the Ann Rice Memorial Award was endowed in perpetuity through his estate gift. The award continues to honor Ann's memory each year through the selection of a female student from the junior class in recognition of her personal contributions to the college through dedication to the goals of a liberal arts education.

Recipient: Alanna Jackson

DREAMKEEPER AWARD

This award is presented to a Colorado College student who has demonstrated an active commitment to addressing issues of multiculturalism and improving the quality of campus life for historically oppressed peoples. The award is a monetary scholarship and is awarded by the Office of Residential Life and Campus Activities.

Recipient: Nicolette Anabella Gordillo-LaRiviere

MARY STEARNS BARKALOW AWARD

Each year the college's professional housing staff selects a senior woman who has made significant contributions to residence halls and campus life through positions of leadership. Barkalow was head resident of Bemis Hall from 1934 until her retirement in 1958. Following her death, her family established this award and asked that recipients demonstrate a commitment to working for personal development of campus women through the agencies and organizations of the campus, demonstrate generosity and honesty in their work with other students, and demonstrate a sense of humor – all characteristics Barkalow manifested.

Recipient: Melissa Alexandra Manuel

J. JUAN REID AWARD

Juan Reid was a 1932 graduate of the college. An excellent student and athlete during his undergraduate years, he continued to serve Colorado College for nearly half a century as a coach, dean of men, and director of alumni relations. Juan Reid wrote the official history of the college's first 100 years, "Colorado College: The First Century, 1874-1974." This award is presented to the senior best combining scholastic excellence and involvement in extra-curricular activities. Selection is made by the deans of the college and the vice president for student life.

Recipient: Deksyos Damtew

LLOYD E. WORNER TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD,

presented by Sakina N. Bhatti

No professional touches us as much as the teacher. From our childhood to our college graduations, we are aided and influenced by teachers. And of those, there are some who particularly influence our course in life, our choices, and our actions. Here at Colorado College, there are a great number of wonderful professors who have profound effects on students every day. With this award we wish to acknowledge one of the greatest of those. Students have chosen this professor based on the intelligence, caring, and exceptional qualifications that they bring to teaching.

Recipient: Professor Florencia Rojo
