ANTHROPOLOGY, presented by Professor Scott E. Ingram

H. Marie Wormington Award

The H. Marie Wormington Award in Anthropology was established in 1979 by Wormington and her husband, George D. Volk, to honor the outstanding graduating senior in Anthropology. Wormington, who died in 1994, was a former curator of archaeology at the Denver Museum of Natural History and an adjunct professor at Colorado College. Her own distinguished career was devoted to the Paleo-Indian period of New World prehistory, but it was the couple's desire to recognize student achievements in the discipline as a whole. The criteria for the Wormington Award are a high academic record, notable aptitude for and accomplishment in field research, leadership, participation in the department's programs, and dedication to the discipline of anthropology.

Recipient: Lucy Kramer

Courtney Cusick Memorial Prize

The Courtney Cusick Memorial Prize was created in 2003 in memory of Anthropology major Courtney Cusick, who died tragically in an automobile accident in January 2002, in the middle of her senior year. An avid and accomplished naturalist even before entering college, Cusick left her friends, fellow students, and professors impressed with her hunger for knowledge and dedication to serious academic study. The Cusick Prize is awarded for the outstanding senior paper in anthropology.

Recipient: Riss Eva Banuelos

ART, presented by Tamara Bentley

Outstanding Senior Capstone in Art Studio

Recipient: Owen Scott Marchant

Outstanding Senior Capstone in Design

Recipient: Isabel Bragg

Outstanding Senior Capstone in Art History

Recipient: Peter Eisenheim

Mary Chenoweth Award

Mary Chenoweth taught art at Colorado College from 1957–1983. She is remembered as a dedicated artist and free spirit whose generosity, enthusiasm, and wit enriched the lives of her students and colleagues. When she retired, members of the Class of 1983 and others established a fund in her honor. Each year, a book is given to the graduating senior art major who best exemplifies Professor Mary Chenoweth's talent, spirit, and dedication to art.

Recipient: Olive Maharam

Craig Herst Arts Prize Scholar Award

not presented

The CHAPS award was established by family and friends in memory of Craig Herst, a member of the Class of 1989. In 1998, Herst died tragically of injuries sustained in a car accident that occurred shortly after his graduation from Colorado College. A gifted artist and sculptor whose work reveals surprising maturity and sophistication, Herst is remembered fondly as a very vibrant, athletic, and personally engaging young man with a promising future in the arts. The Craig Herst Arts Prize Scholar or CHAPS is awarded annually to a junior studio art major who embodies Herst's passion for the arts and has demonstrated excellence during their career at Colorado College. The prize will support research or creative work, which may well be a part of the recipient's senior show.

Recipients: Jeremy Altman, Teddy Bicknell Doggett, Claire Schaub, Kass Ullmann, Ciara Wiesner, Emelia Winter

not presented

The Edith Kirsch Prize was established in memory of Edith Kirsch, a scholar of Italian art and professor of art at Colorado College from 1982–2004. It is awarded annually to a student for an independent project involving summer travel abroad to study works of art or architecture.

Recipients: Alex Kathryn Elwell, Ja'Toria Dyson Lizette Johnson, Lila Osborne

CHEMISTRY & BIOCHEMISTRY, presented by Professor Jessica Kisunzu

Otis A. and Margaret T. Barnes Departmental Service Award

This award was established in 1952 by the Otis A. and Margaret T. Barnes Trust in honor of the Chemistry major who, in the judgment of the Department of Chemistry faculty, has contributed the most in helping and furthering the departmental program at Colorado College. Eligible students include Chemistry and Biochemistry majors and minors in their sophomore, junior, or senior year. It includes a one-year membership in the American Chemical Society.

Recipients: Torah Delaney, Abigail Duke-Moe, Ethan Wobus

First-Year Chemistry Award

This award is given to the first-year student, regardless of major, who is considered to have demonstrated outstanding performance in Chemistry during their first year. Students are considered for this award based on a combination of academic achievement, growth, and contributions to a positive class environment over the course of multiple blocks.

Recipients: Oliver Siegal, Anna Louise Sweet, Elijah Yun

William C. Champion Prize in Organic Chemistry

Professor Champion (CC 1959–1993) was loved by his colleagues and students for his knowledge of organic chemistry; his compassion as a teacher, advisor, and friend; and his high ethical standards. This award, in his memory, honors the most outstanding student in courses in organic chemistry (any combination of Chemistry 250, 251, 155, 255, 351, and 352) taken during the previous year.

Recipients: Jason Samuels, Ellis Stevens, Cameron Thompson

Senior Awards for Academic Achievement

This award is presented to graduating senior Chemistry and Biochemistry majors. Students are considered for this award on the basis of several criteria including scholastic achievement (GPA) and research accomplishments, as well as growth in either of these areas throughout their time in the department.

Recipients: Torah Delaney, Cassidy Recker

ACS Biochemistry or Chemical Biology Award

This award is intended to recognize a graduating senior who displays a significant aptitude for Biochemistry or Chemical Biology and to encourage further interest in the field. This individual will have demonstrated excellence in a combination of coursework, research, service to the program, and a desire to pursue a career in biochemistry or chemical biology. The award, sponsored by the ACS Division of Biological Chemistry (DBC), includes a certificate, commemorative pin, letter of recognition, and a one-year membership to the DBC.

Recipient: Haley Goetting

CS Analytical Chemistry Award

This award goes to a junior who has excelled in analytical chemistry courses and whose plans for a science career promise further work in this field. The award, sponsored by the American Chemical Society analytical division, includes a subscription to the ACS journal Analytical Chemistry.

Recipient: Micah Denslow

ACS Inorganic Chemistry Award

The award is intended to recognize achievement by undergraduate students in Inorganic Chemistry and to encourage further study in the field. The student nominee will have demonstrated excellence in Inorganic Chemistry at the undergraduate level based on any combination of research, coursework, and/or motivation/interest/dedication as defined by their nominating institution and should have future plans that include a career in chemistry. The award includes a certificate, letter of commendation from the Chair of the Division of Inorganic Chemistry and a year membership to the Inorganic Division of ACS.

Recipient: Liv Panos

ACS Physical Chemistry Award

This award is intended to recognize outstanding achievement by an undergraduate student in Physical Chemistry and is meant to encourage further pursuits in the field. The award, sponsored by the American Chemical Society Physical Chemistry division, includes a certificate from the ACS Division of Physical Chemistry, recognition on the Division's website and, a one-year complimentary membership to the Division of Physical Chemistry.

Recipient: Henry Batson

Creelius Family Research Award in Chemistry

not presented

This award was established by the Creelius family: Daniel N. Crecelius, Class of 1959, and Anahid Tashjian Crecelius, and their daughter, Gia M. Crecelius (Chemistry, Class of 1991). The award recognizes a Chemistry or Biochemistry student who has done extraordinary work in research. It is intended to assist the recipient with travel to present research results at a major professional meeting.

Recipient: Douglas Leung

Julia E. & Kenneth G. Bower Family Award in Chemistry and Biochemistry

not presented

This award supports a student in a faculty-mentored summer research project in environmental chemistry, archaeochemistry, art conservation, museology, or similar interdisciplinary areas within chemistry.

Recipient: Peter Renwick

Alfred W. Alberts Summer Research Prize

not presented

The Alfred W. Alberts Summer Research Prize is awarded to a deserving student who will conduct summer research in chemistry or molecular biology. Awarded by the Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry.

Recipient: Evie Rosamond Doran

CHINESE, GERMAN, ITALIAN, JAPANESE & RUSSIAN STUDIES,
presented by Professor William S. Davis

Excellence in German Award

Recipient: Aubrey Mcguire

Anne von Bibra Sutton German Scholarship

The Anne von Bibra Sutton German Scholarship is an award given each year to a student in good standing. Criteria include progress in German language and proficiency and interest in German life and letters. The award was established by Judge Leonard von Bibra Sutton in honor of his mother, who taught German in the 1930s at Colorado College.

Recipient: Ethan Kirschner

Max Kade Award in German

The Max Kade Award in German is awarded to a student in good standing. Criteria include progress in German proficiency, knowledge of German literature, and interest in German life and letters. The award is made possible through funds from the Max Kade Foundation. Max Kade, a German immigrant, established the foundation to support and to further interest in German life and letters in the United States.

Recipient: Felix Battle

Recipient: Serena Linh Nguyen

CLASSICS, presented by Professor Richard Fernando Buxton

Dr. John Bryant and Miriam Gile Hartwell Classics Prize

The prize was established in 1981 to honor students who have displayed unusual interest and ability in the study of the classics. Hartwell, a friend of the College staff and lover of the classics, graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Yale in 1900, received an MD from Harvard in 1904, and practiced surgery for many years in Colorado Springs. He married Miriam Gile, a daughter of Moses Clement Gile, professor of classics at CC from 1892–1916, whose name is perpetuated in a chair at the College.

Recipient: Zibby Lindholm

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE,
presented by Professor William S. Davis

Excellence in Comparative Literature

The comparative literature faculty wishes to commend its exceptional students with this prize. It thereby recognizes their high academic achievements in coursework, creativity in senior theses, as well as linguistic abilities and general personal contributions to the continuing success of this program.

Recipient: Justin Alpuche (Justin Daniel Gray)

ECONOMICS & BUSINESS, presented by Professor Christina Rader

Kenneth J. and Elizabeth Hare Curran Award

The Kenneth J. and Elizabeth Hare Curran Award is given each year to the outstanding senior graduate in Economics. The award is given in memory of Professor Kenneth J. Curran and his wife, Elizabeth Hare Curran. He was a beloved teacher of economics, chairman of the department, and dean of the College.

Recipients: Tucker Burr, Joanna Oster, Orion Samikoglu, Nathan Shields, Senya Urbom

Robert William Kaye Prize

The Robert William Kaye Prize is presented to the outstanding senior graduating in Business, Economics, and Society. Robert Kaye was a Business major in the Class of 1941. He served his country in World War II in the U.S. Marine Corps and was killed in action in March 1944. This award was established by the family and friends of Captain Kaye.

Recipients: Ryan Carter Brush, Samuel Lain, Aidan Low, Megan Simonson

Robert E. Rubin International Political Economics Award

This award is given to the outstanding senior graduate in International Political Economy.

Recipient: Ella Reese-Clauson

Robert E. Rubin Mathematical Economics Award

This award is given to the outstanding senior graduate in Mathematical Economics.

Recipient: Robbie Vaillancourt Repenning

EDUCATION, presented by Professor Mike Taber

Outstanding Academic Achievement

The Outstanding Academic Achievement award is presented to the graduating education major whose academic achievements best reflect the department's learning outcomes, as demonstrated by a minimum GPA of 3.5 in the major and a high-quality thesis. Further, this student consistently exemplified the department's core values of collaboration, solidarity, creativity, and liberation during their time at Colorado College. These scholarships, established in 2000 in honor of Patricia J. Buster, Class of 1933, support outstanding Colorado College students in undertaking original research in Geology and related earth sciences.

Recipients: Willow Craighead, Toby Aronov Fried, Jake Hams, Lenny Lorenz, Harold Oppenheim, Keller Pooley, Maddox Rochman-Romdalvik, Avery Rubins, Andy Ichiro Sameshima, April Simmonds, Elizabeth Spradlin, Lev Sugerman-Brozan

HEALTH PROFESSIONS, presented by Rich Bennett, Associate Athletics Director, Sport Performance and Wellness

Mahony Award in Sports Medicine

Established in 2006, the Mahony Award in Sports Medicine honors the senior pre-med or allied health student who demonstrates academic achievement and clinical potential for a career in medicine or allied health.

Established by team physician Thomas H. Mahony III, M.D., Class of 1967, and wife Jan, Class of 1968, the award recognizes student dedication to and involvement with the College's Sports Medicine program.

Recipient: Fiona Rose Vail

HISTORY, presented by Professor Jane H. Murphy

Clyde E. Augustus Duniway Prize

A Stanford University History professor turned administrator, Duniway served as president of the Universities of Montana and Wyoming, and of Colorado College from 1917–1923. At Colorado College, his efforts to raise academic standards provoked a storm of student protest. The Duniway prize recognizes a History major's strong achievement in History courses and contributions to the department.

Recipient: Aden Katz

William R. Hochman Prize For Distinguished Student Research and Writing in History

This award was established to honor the late Professor Emeritus William R. Hochman of the Department of History. It supports an annual award for a student or students whose senior thesis or essay best represents Bill's advocacy of fresh critical approaches to sources and lucid written argument. Professor Hochman was a vital member of the CC community for over six decades and was the chair of the Department of History for many years. He pushed his students to tackle the key issues of the time: the balances and battles between individual freedom and religious, social, and political authority.

Recipient: Mohan Raghunath

MATHEMATICS & COMPUTER SCIENCE, presented by Professors Janet Burge and Luis David Garcia Puente

Florian Cajori Award

The Cajori Award in mathematics is named in honor of Florian Cajori, a prominent mathematician and professor of Mathematics at Colorado College from 1898 to 1918. The award is given to the graduating senior who best demonstrates unusual talent and achievements in Mathematics, an unusual breadth and depth of accomplishments, and high grades in math courses taken at Colorado College.

Recipients: Abby Burnham, Katherine Smela

Sophie Germain Award

The Sophie Germain Award honors a Mathematics major who demonstrates an unusual commitment to the mathematics community and passion for the field.

Recipient: R. Oliver Keeley

Steven Janke Prize in Computer Science

Steven Janke is the founder of the Computer Science program at Colorado College. He retired in 2016 after decades of service and leadership in the department. This award is named in honor of his brilliant teaching and scholarship at Colorado College. The award is given to the graduating senior who best demonstrates unusual talent and achievements in Computer Science, an unusual breadth and depth of accomplishments, and high grades in Computer Science courses taken at Colorado College.

Recipients: Erin Liedeker, Jevon Lipsey

Grace Hopper Award in Computer Science

The Grace Hopper Award in Computer Science goes to a Computer Science major who demonstrates an unusual commitment to the computer science community.

Recipients: Erin Liedeker, Harris Proctor

Thomas Post Rawles Mathematics Prize

not presented

The Thomas Post Rawles Prize is awarded each year on the basis of a competitive exam. The endowment for this fund was established in 1959 by Thomas H. Rawles in memory of his son, Thomas Post Rawles.

Top Upper Division: Andrew Peng

Top Lower Division: Finn Alexander Braun

Fearless Award

Awarded to the student who submits the best collection of summaries of Fearless Friday Talks.

Recipient: Yousef Tesfay Sengal

MOLECULAR BIOLOGY, presented by Professor Olivia Hatton

Mary Alice Hamilton Award in Molecular Biology

For many years this award has recognized a top graduating Biology major, which is based on academic performance, research, and prospects for a successful career in biology. After the retirement of Professor Mary Alice Hamilton from the Department of Biology in 1977, the Department named this award in Professor Hamilton's honor to recognize her 27 years as a devoted faculty member.

Recipient: Vanessa Perez Gomez

Ralph Garcia-Bertrand Award in Molecular Biology

This award is made to a senior Molecular Biology major whose interests and coursework are mainly in the area of laboratory-based biology. The criteria for selecting a recipient for this award are: grades in biology courses with a laboratory component, performance in lab-based research, preferably for a senior thesis, and plans for post-graduate work or study.

Recipients: Caroline Bay, Audrey Combs, Liz White

Mary Magnusson & Ralph Gilmore Summer Research Grant

not presented

This award provides summer stipends for Colorado College students to engage in research in natural sciences during their undergraduate years. The research may occur in conjunction with a CC faculty member on campus or in the field. The stipend may be used to pay students for summer research or for research supplies.

Recipient: Marina Seidl

MUSIC, presented by Professor Susan L. Grace

David and Karen Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Music

David Cowperthwaite was a member of the Colorado College Class of 1960 and his wife, Karen, was enrolled as a member of the Class of 1962 when they were killed by lightning during a mountain expedition in 1960. The David and Karen Smith Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Music was instituted by their parents in their memory in 1962, the year Karen would have graduated.

Recipients: Saarang Chari, Neo Li

Max Lanner Prize for Excellence in Instrumental Music

This award celebrates the pivotal roles played by individual students in advancing the success of the department's music ensembles. While they might not always be front and center as soloists, their contributions are essential to the overall musicianship and excellence of their respective groups.

Recipients: Hazel Keithahn, Neo Li, Elijah Yun

Marie Clough Gillis Award for Excellence in Vocal Music

This award was established in memory of Marie Clough Gillis, member of the Colorado College Class of 1918. The award was established in 1989 by her nieces in honor of her love of vocal music.

Recipient: Ella Dill

Excellence in Ensemble Performance

This award celebrates the pivotal roles played by individual students in advancing the success of the department's music ensembles. While they might not always be front and center as soloists, their contributions are essential to the overall musicianship and excellence of their respective groups.

NEUROSCIENCE,

presented by Professor Lori Driscoll

Shearn Award in Neuroscience

The Shearn Award in Neuroscience, named in honor of Psychology Professor Don Shearn, is awarded to an outstanding Neuroscience thesis student chosen by the neuroscience advisors.

Recipient: Chris Gruschow

ORGANISMAL BIOLOGY & ECOLOGY, presented by Professor Jesús Peña

Richard and Reba Beidleman Award

Upon his retirement in 1988, after 31 years in the Biology Department, Professor Beidleman established this award from funds he received from the Burlington Northern Outstanding Teacher Award. The Beidleman Award is given annually to a student who has demonstrated, through classroom and fieldwork, the greatest potential for becoming a professional ecologist or field biologist. In 1990, after the tragic death of Professor Beidleman's wife in an automobile accident, the Biology Department added Reba's name to the award in recognition of her many contributions to environmental preservation in the Colorado Springs area.

Recipients: Jill Coleman, Theo Ollier

Enderson Award in Conservation Biology

The Enderson Award in Conservation in Biology was established by the department to honor Professor Jim Enderson at his retirement. Professor Enderson joined the Biology Department in 1962, long before it was fashionable to call oneself a "conservation biologist". Throughout his career, research centered on the precipitous declines of birds of prey, especially the peregrine falcon. He was the first to breed the temperate North American peregrine in captivity, a line used extensively in restoration of the western population. He served on several recovery teams and working groups for endangered species. At Colorado College he inspired students through independent projects to pursue careers from botany to ornithology, in the lab and in the field. In keeping with his scholarship and breadth as a biologist, the Enderson Award honors a junior or senior Biology major who, in the opinion of the faculty, has shown commitment and productivity in an original research project in conservation biology. Candidates are eligible if their work has conservation implications, whether the focus is molecular, organismic, ecosystem, lab, or field.

Recipient: Tyler Mielke

Mary Alice Hamilton Award in Organismal Biology and Ecology

For many years the Department of Biology has recognized the top graduating Biology major, which is based on academic performance, undergraduate research in both lab and field studies, and prospects for a successful career in biology. After the retirement of Professor Mary Alice Hamilton from the Department of Biology in 1977, the department named this award in Professor Hamilton's honor to recognize her 27 years as a devoted faculty member.

Recipients: Camilla Jane Mancini, Magdalyn Celeste Rowley-Lange

Laboratory Award in Organismal Biology and Ecology

This award is made to a senior Organismal Biology and Ecology major whose interests and coursework are mainly in the area of laboratory-based biology. The criteria for selecting a recipient for this award are: grades in Biology courses with a laboratory component, performance in lab-based research, preferably for a senior thesis, and plans for postgraduate work or study.

Recipient: Sky Theodosopoulos

PHILOSOPHY, presented by Professor Dennis McEnnerney

J. Glenn Gray Award

J. Glenn Gray, who died in 1977, was a distinguished member of the Colorado College Department of Philosophy for many years. He believed in the civilizing function of philosophical inquiry and dedicated his life to inculcating its values in his students. This award is supported by the J. Glenn and Ursula Gray Memorial Fund and honors those students who share Professor Gray's passion for philosophy and best demonstrate his skill and sensitivity at philosophical analysis.

Recipients: Royce Hinojosa, Willa Echo Schendler

PHYSICS, presented by Professor Natalie Gosnell

Wilbur H. Wright Memorial Prize

This award was established in memory of Professor Wilbur Wright, a student at Colorado College in 1938 and a member of the faculty from 1956–1984, for his contributions to the Department of Physics, his many Colorado College students, and to the college community. This award is for a graduating Physics major or majors who exemplify Wright's standards and interests in physics and in academic work outside the department. That is, the award winner or winners should show an enthusiasm for the study of physics by hard work and achievement, though they need not have the highest GPA. Similar efforts in a discipline outside physics should show an understanding of the importance of the liberal arts for a science student.

Recipients: Will Anderson, Alessandra Tornelli

David and Karen Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Physics

David Cowperthwaite was a member of the Colorado College class of 1960 and his wife, Karen, was enrolled as a member of the class of 1962 when they were killed by lightning during a mountain expedition in 1960. The David and Karen Smith Cowperthwaite Award for Excellence in Physics was instituted by their parents in their memory in 1962, the year Karen would have graduated.

Recipient: Nicholas Anderson

POLITICAL SCIENCE, presented by Professor Douglas E. Edlin

Edith Bramhall Award

This award honors Edith Bramhall, who taught Political Science at Colorado College from 1920–1946. She was one of the first women to earn a PhD in Political Science in the United States. The award is given annually to a student whom the Political Science faculty deem the outstanding scholar in the department.

Recipients: Abi Anderson, William Jordan McCracken

The award is given annually for overall achievement and contribution to the department.

Recipients: Ady Bolinger, Aiden McLean

PSYCHOLOGY, presented by Professor Kristi Erdal

William Arthur Blakely Memorial Award

The William Arthur Blakely Award is financed through funds provided by the family and friends of Blakely, who was a member of the Department of Psychology from 1931–1959 and chair during most of that period. The award is presented to a student who shows exceptional promise for a career in psychology.

Recipients: Kole Petersen, Macy Scherer

Cornelia Manley Sabine Award

This award is presented annually to the outstanding graduating Psychology senior on behalf of Cornelia Sabine, Class of 1949, a longtime supporter of Colorado College and the Department of Psychology. This award serves as a tribute to Sabine, who had a long and distinguished career in public service as a psychologist, working with both children and adults in Colorado. After receiving a bachelor's degree in music from Northwestern University, Sabine and her husband, Paul, moved to Colorado Springs in 1947, where she obtained a BA, magna cum laude, and an MA in human behavior from Colorado College. She subsequently earned an educational specialist degree from Stanford University, and became a licensed clinical psychologist in Colorado Springs, where she maintained a private practice for 30 years. Her advice to students was to use their knowledge of psychology to bring peace and understanding into relationships in our fractious modern world.

Recipient: Avy Diamond

Hank Bedingfield Award

Presented by Brett LeVan and Nathan Levy

The Hank Bedingfield Award is in honor of Henry ‘Hank’ Bedingfield, Class of 2022. During his years at Colorado College, Hank was a beloved member of and contributor to all of Cutler’s incorporated publications in some way or another. He was a creative and talented journalist well-known on campus for his restaurant reviews and excellent news reporting. He was exactly what student journalists should be: brave, responsible, and completely dedicated. No area of student journalism at CC was left untouched by Hank. He was an incredible writer, editor, and, most importantly, friend. This award will go to a junior or senior that has served on the Cutler Board. It will be awarded in honor of their commitment to and talent for student journalism, in addition to their contributions to the people and community of Cutler.

Recipients: Lilly Asano, Tessa Frantz

Ruth Barton Award

Presented by Brett LeVan and Nathan Levy

The Ruth Barton Award was established in 1996 to recognize Ruth Barton’s dedication to student journalism at the college. In some years, it may be given to a member of the faculty, staff, or administration who contributes significant time and effort to student journalism at Colorado College. In other years it may be given to a student who has demonstrated excellence both in the academic study of journalism and in contribution to student publications.

Recipients: Veronica Bianco, Sydney McGarr

E.K. Gaylord Award

Presented by Brett LeVan and Nathan Levy

This award was established in honor of E. K. Gaylord, a member of the Class of 1897 and president of the Oklahoma Publishing Company until his death in 1974 at the age of 101. Gaylord was a generous supporter of Colorado College during his lifetime and served for many years as a Trustee of the College. Because of his own career in journalism, he took a special interest in student publications. For that reason, the E. K. Gaylord Award is given each year to a junior or senior for continuing contributions to Colorado College publications.

Recipient: Benjamin Slater

Taizo Nakashima Emerging Leader Award

Presented by Bianca Soto, Assistant Director, Butler Center

Lloyd E. Worner Teacher of the Year Award

No professional touches our lives as much as the teacher. From our childhood to our college graduations, we are aided and influenced by teachers. And of those, there are some who particularly influence our course in life, our choices, and our actions. Here at Colorado College, there are a great number of wonderful professors who have profound effects on students every day. With this award we wish to acknowledge one of the greatest of those. Students have chosen this professor based on the intelligence, caring, and exceptional qualifications that they bring to teaching.
