Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College Brings Holiday Classic Irving Berlin's White Christmas to the Stage

Beloved musical features timeless Irving Berlin songs

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (Oct. 29, 2026) — The Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center at Colorado College invites audiences to celebrate the holiday season with Irving Berlin's White Christmas, running November 19 through December 27, 2026, in the JiGaSa Theatre.

Based on the beloved 1954 film, this heartwarming musical brings romance, friendship, dazzling song-and-dance numbers, and the spirit of the holidays to the stage.

Set in the years following World War II, the story follows veterans Bob Wallace and Phil Davis, a successful song-and-dance duo who encounter two talented singing sisters, Betty and Judy Haynes. Their adventures lead them to a Vermont lodge owned by their former Army commander, where music, romance, and a little holiday magic come together.

Featuring 17 Irving Berlin songs, including "Blue Skies," "I Love a Piano," "How Deep Is the Ocean," and the unforgettable "White Christmas," the production offers a nostalgic celebration of music, friendship, and generosity.

From Broadway to Colorado Springs

The Fine Arts Center's production of White Christmas is directed and choreographed by Jeffry Denman, who originated the role of Phil Davis in the musical's original Broadway production—the beloved song-and-dance role made famous by Danny Kaye in the film.

With Broadway credits including The Producers, Cats, and How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, Denman brings a remarkable career and a personal connection to this holiday favorite. Experience the dazzling dancing, timeless music, and heartfelt storytelling of White Christmas through the vision of an artist who helped bring it to life on Broadway.

Media Opportunities

Interviews with the production's director, cast members, and creative team may be available upon request. Media representatives interested in interviews, production photography, or preview coverage are encouraged to contact the Fine Arts Center.
