ALUMNI FEATURE

Molly Brown ’14 graduated with a major in Economics and a minor in Spanish. Throughout her time at CC, Molly was involved with the President’s Council, the Women’s Varsity Swim Team, and Kappa Alpha Theta. After graduation, Molly participated in a two-year leadership and professional development fellowship at El Pomar Foundation, where she gained insight into the grant making process and nonprofit operations. The fellowship acted as a springboard, landing her with an account management role at Oracle Corporation. Molly now manages a portfolio of 30+ nonprofit organizations and advises them on business operations. Go Molly!

ALUMNI PERSPECTIVE

My economics degree provided an excellent foundation for my career in international business, government, and law. The hard skills I developed in accounting, statistics, and econometrics helped me to succeed in graduate school and in founding businesses like my fintech company, which uses cutting-edge technology to help refugees safely store and transport assets anywhere in the world.

— Nat Robinson, Economics ’03
