

Led by Karl Greis, the construction shop works in conjunction with the project management team to tackle the colleges many small to medium sized construction and remodeling projects. They have been instrumental in remodeling classrooms and other areas throughout campus to meet ADA guidelines.

The vast expertise of these craftsmen allows them to tackle any job, no matter how small or large, and see it through from start to finish.