PH263: Contemporary Psychoanalysis

After learning some basic Freud and self psychology, we spend two and half weeks at the Chicago Institute for Psychoanalysis meeting with a number of psychoanalysts who will talk to us about their cases, ways of understanding psychological dynamics, and offering psychoanalytic interpretations of culture and society.

DATES: September 26 through October 14, 2020

CONTACT: Prof. John Riker & Prof. Marcia Dobson

DESTINATION INFORMATION: We will be staying in the heart of Chicago and studying at the Chicago Psychoanalytic Institute.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION: This course offers 1 unit, fulfills the AIM (Analysis & Interpretation) and SHB (Societies & Human Behavior) requirements in the new General Education structure.

PROGRAM FEE: $1,350 with Hostel, $350 without. Includes transportation in Chicago, all excursions, visits and tours.

FEE DOES NOT INCLUDE: Airfare to/from Chicago, estimated at $350. Airfare is calculated into all financial aid awards.

Apply on Summit by Feb. 21 to receive aid consideration.