ITALY

IT320: GUSTO: Italian Food as Art, Culture & Tradition
IT204: Intermediate Italian

1 program with 2 course options. Choose Intermediate Italian or opt for an upper level Italian course (taught in English) which will explore a broad history of Italian food in its European context, while also researching (and tasting!) local case studies in two regions of central Italy. We will also look at regional cuisine, staple foods, eating habits, and representations of food in art, literature and film.

DATES: Block 8, April 19-May 12, 2021

CONTACT: Prof. Amanda Minervini

ACADEMIC INFORMATION: This course offers 1 unit of Italian. No prerequisites, however 1 block of Italian or an adjunct course is recommended. STUDENTS CAN ALSO JOIN THIS COURSE AS PART OF A HALF-SEMESTER PROGRAM BY ALSO ENROLLING IN THE BLOCK 7 ITALY COURSE.

PROGRAM FEE: $3,250 includes housing, transportation in Italy, group meals, all excursions, visits and tours, and international travel health insurance. THE PROGRAM FEE IS WAIVED FOR ANY STUDENT WHO ENROLLS IN BOTH THE BLOCK 7 AND BLOCK 8 PROGRAMS AS A HALF-SEMESTER INSTEAD OF 1 BLOCK ONLY.

FEE DOES NOT INCLUDE: Airfare to/from Florence/Rome (TBD) and all non-group meals. Estimated cost is $1,900. These costs is calculated into all financial aid awards.

Apply on Summit by Feb. 21 to receive aid consideration