Your courses are no longer listed in “Block” order

Instead, you can use the Details column (which displays the full course ID, including the section number) to identify the scheduled Block using “BEST” practices. BEST is the interpretation method for the four-character code that appears after the subject code and course number in a Course ID.

- B = Block: The block in which the course begins
- E = End Block: The block in which the course ends
- S = Section: The course section identifier (number or letter)
- T = Type: The course scheduling type (such as Block Seminar, Adjunct, or Extended Format).

*Alternatively, you can click on the hyperlinked CRN to find further scheduled details including scheduled Block.

Student Quick Guide: How to Check Holds

1. Go to your Student Profile.
2. Directly under your name near the upper right corner, you'll see Holds with a red indicator showing the number of active holds on your account. Click it.
3. Click the arrow next to each hold to view details, including:
 - a. From Date – when the hold was placed on your account in Banner
 - b. To Date – when the hold ends (if you see 12/31/2099, the hold is active until it is resolved)
 - c. Reason – why the hold was placed
 - d. Processes Affected – what actions are blocked until the hold is resolved

Student Quick Guide: How to View Your Unofficial Transcript

1. Go to your Student Profile.
2. Select Academic Transcript on the left-side menu under your CC ID photo
3. Choose the following options, then click Submit:
 - a. Transcript Level (e.g., All Levels to view all coursework, or select a specific level such as Undergraduate if applicable).
 - b. Transcript Type (this will always be Web Transcript, which is the view of your unofficial transcript available through SSB9)
4. Your transcript will display on the page and the view will include:
 - a. Student Information
 - b. Degree Status
 - c. Transfer Credit (if applicable)
 - d. Institutional Credit
 - e. Transcript Totals

Helpful Tips:

- Use the tabs to view specific sections of your transcript individually.
- Select the Print icon in the upper right corner to generate a printable PDF of your unofficial transcript. Alternatively, you can still request your unofficial transcript from the Registrar's Office.
- If you want to view records of prior education and testing scores accepted by Colorado College (outside of your transcript), go to your Student Profile and select Prior Education and Testing under your CC ID photo.
