Selected Stanzas

“St. Anne”William Croft (1678-1727)

*O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.*

*Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its own away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.*

*A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.*

*O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guide while life shall last
And our eternal home. Amen.*

— Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

RECESSIONAL/POSTLUDE*

“Pomp and Circumstance March no. 1 in D”Edward Elgar (1857-1934)
Simon Jacobs, College Organist

*Attendees standing.
Attendees remain standing until the academic procession withdraws.

“Famous”

The river is famous to the fish.

*The loud voice is famous to silence,
which knew it would inherit the earth
before anybody said so.*

The cat sleeping on the fence is famous to the birds watching him from the birdhouse.

The tear is famous, briefly, to the cheek.

The idea you carry close to your bosom is famous to your bosom.

*The boot is famous to the earth,
more famous than the dress shoe,
which is famous only to floors.*

The bent photograph is famous to the one who carries it and not at all famous to the one who is pictured.

*I want to be famous to shuffling men who smile while crossing streets, sticky children in grocery lines,
famous as the one who smiled back.*

I want to be famous in the way a pulley is famous, or a buttonhole, not because it did anything spectacular, but because it never forgot what it could do.
