ARIZONA

Conservation

- 63% consider themselves to be conservationists.
- 34% consider themselves a hunter or angler.
- 79% support constructing wildlife crossing structures across major highways.

Colorado River

- 89% believe the Colorado River is critical to the state’s economy.
- 85% believe the Colorado River is in need of urgent action.

Protecting 30x30

- 86% support a national goal of conserving 30% of America’s land and waters by the year 2030.
- 86% support presidents continuing to use their ability to protect existing public lands as national monuments.
- 62% support enacting legislation that would make permanent the current ban on new uranium and other mining on public lands surrounding the Grand Canyon.

Water & Drought Concerns

- 91% describe the current shortage of water supplies in the West as a problem.
- 87% support requiring local governments to determine whether there is enough water available before approving new residential development projects.
- 82% support providing financial incentives to homeowners and businesses to replace lawns and grassy areas with water-saving landscaping.

Energy on Public Lands

- 70% support only allowing oil and gas companies the right to drill in areas where there is high likelihood to actually produce oil and gas.
- 69% prefer that leaders place more emphasis on protecting water, air, wildlife habitat and recreation opportunities over maximizing the amount of land available for drilling and mining.
- 89% support requiring oil and gas companies, rather than federal and state governments, to pay for all of the clean-up and land restoration costs after drilling is finished.