Would you prefer the Trump administration place more emphasis on...

64% Ensuring we protect sources of clean water, our air quality and wildlife habitat while providing opportunities to visit and recreate on our national public lands

22% Ensuring we produce more domestic energy by maximizing the amount of national public lands available for responsible oil and gas drilling and mining

46% of Utahns disapprove of the way the Trump administration is handling issues related to land, water and wildlife. 47% approve.

Oppose eliminating protections for national monuments

“Would you say that it is — a good idea or a bad idea — to reduce the size or protections at other national monuments?”

Think inadequate water supplies is a serious problem

Additionally, 81% of Utahns favor “using our current water supply more wisely, by encouraging more water conservation, reducing use, and increasing recycling of water” over “diverting more waters from rivers” to address inadequate supplies.

76% of Utahns consider themselves conservationists and 76% outdoor recreation enthusiasts

Utah's outdoor recreation economy

95% of Utahns think the outdoor recreation economy — meaning people who come to hunt, fish, camp, see wildlife, as well as those who manufacture and sell equipment for those activities — is important to the economic future of the state.

81% of Utahns think the presence of public lands and a lifestyle of outdoor recreation gives the West an economic advantage over other parts of the country.
