

Montana

Would you prefer the Trump administration place more emphasis on...

58% Ensuring we protect sources of clean water, our air quality and wildlife habitat while providing opportunities to visit and recreate on our national public lands

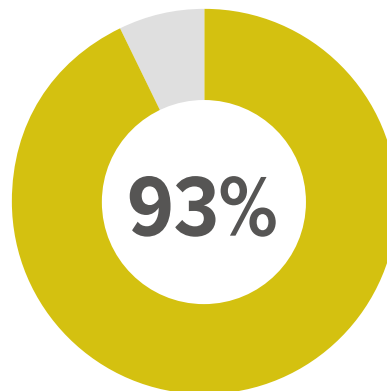

28% Ensuring we produce more domestic energy by maximizing the amount of national public lands available for responsible oil and gas drilling and mining

45% of Montanans disapprove of the way the Trump administration is handling issues related to land, water and wildlife. 46% approve.

Oppose eliminating protections for national monuments

“Would you say that it is — a good idea or a bad idea — to reduce the size or protections at other national monuments?”

Think uncontrollable wildfires that threaten homes and property are a serious problem

82% of Montanans consider themselves conservationists and 87% outdoor recreation enthusiasts

Montana’s outdoor recreation economy

96% of Montanans think the outdoor recreation economy — meaning people who come to hunt, fish, camp, see wildlife, as well as those who manufacture and sell equipment for those activities — is important to the economic future of the state.

76% Montanans think the presence of public lands and a lifestyle of outdoor recreation gives the West an economic advantage over other parts of the country.
