Would you prefer the Trump administration place more emphasis on...

62% Ensuring we protect sources of clean water, our air quality and wildlife habitat while providing opportunities to visit and recreate on our national public lands

27% Ensuring we produce more domestic energy by maximizing the amount of national public lands available for responsible oil and gas drilling and mining

56% of New Mexicans disapprove of the way the Trump administration is handling issues related to land, water and wildlife. Only 34% approve.

Oppose eliminating protections for Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks and Rio Grande del Norte National Monuments

“Would you say that it is — a good idea or a bad idea — to reduce the protections for these national monuments”

Think inadequate water supplies is a serious problem

Additionally, 78% of New Mexicans favor “using our current water supply more wisely, by encouraging more water conservation, reducing use, and increasing recycling of water” over “diverting more waters from rivers” to address inadequate supplies.

87%

New Mexico’s outdoor recreation economy

92% of New Mexicans think the outdoor recreation economy — meaning people who come to hunt, fish, camp, see wildlife, as well as those who manufacture and sell equipment for those activities — is important to the economic future of the state.

78% of New Mexicans think the presence of public lands and a lifestyle of outdoor recreation gives the West an economic advantage over other parts of the country.

76% of New Mexicans consider themselves conservationists and 77% outdoor recreation enthusiasts