READY FOR BOLD ACTION

66% of Nevadans are worried about the future of nature. Nevadans are ready to see action.

ENERGY ON PUBLIC LANDS

74% would prefer their Member of Congress emphasize conservation and recreation on public lands over maximizing the amount of land available for responsible energy development.

FIRE IN THE WEST

74% think wildfires in the West are more of a problem than ten years ago.

75% think that oil and gas development on national public lands should be stopped or strictly limited, as opposed to expanded.

PROTECTING LAND, WATER & WILDLIFE

82% support a national goal of protecting 30 percent of America’s lands and oceans by 2030.

85% support creating national parks, national monuments, national wildlife refuges, and tribal protected areas.

CONSERVATION FUNDING

90% agree that even with state budget problems, we should still find money to protect the state’s land, water, and wildlife.

71% support directing funding to ensure adequate access to parks and natural areas for lower-income people and communities of color that have disproportionately lacked them.

ACTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE

71% support gradually transitioning to one hundred percent clean, renewable energy over the next ten to fifteen years.

76% support making public lands a net-zero source of carbon pollution.