

The Colorado College Summer Music Festival

Festival Orchestra Children's Concert

June 13, 2019

9 and 11 a.m.

Celeste Theatre

This treasured annual event is more than just a performance. Please join us for this interactive concert that explains the different instruments and how they work together. The concert will culminate in a performance of The Mountain that Loved a Bird.

Composer and Pulitzer Prize winner Caroline Shaw's musical adaptation of The Mountain that Loved a Bird by Alice McLerran is performed by members of the Festival Orchestra and set to colorful illustrations in this classic story of friendship and renewal.
