Colorado Experience: Fannie Mae Duncan
Directed by: Kate Perdoni

Fannie Mae Duncan brought the motto “Everybody Welcome” to true meaning at her Colorado Springs Cotton Club from 1948 to 1975, despite the volatile Civil Rights Movement of the day. The granddaughter of slaves and the daughter of tenant farmers, Fannie Mae stood for harmony and maintained the first racially integrated club in the city.

JOIN US FOR A PANEL DISCUSSION AFTER THE FILM WITH
