Other Ways to Give

Stocks and Securities

Form, which can be found on our giving page. As you make your transfer, please contact Kathleen Bauer at (719) 389-6354 or kathleen.bauer@coloradocollege.edu and let her know the specifics of your securities transfer (name(s) of stock, how many shares, and any other pertinent information). Donor names generally are not provided when gifts come into our account so please include the legal donor name(s) in your email to Kathleen. This helps us facilitate matching the gift to you and providing a receipt more quickly.

Individual Retirement Accounts

The Tax Relief Extension Act of 2015, which has no expiration date, reinstated the ability to transfer up to $100,000 tax free from your IRA directly to Colorado College. Below are the rules:

- You are 70 1/2 or older on the day of the gift.
- You transfer up to $100,000 directly from your IRA to one or more qualified charities in the tax year.
- You do not receive any goods or services in exchange for the rollovergift.
- You make the gift by December to qualify for that year's credit.

Gift and Estate Planning

Interested in helping Colorado College create leaders who can change the world, but feel overwhelmed by the thought of writing another check or giving up your assets today? A simple, flexible and versatile way to ensure we can continue to provide the finest liberal arts education for years to come is a gift in your will or living trust, known as a charitable bequest. By including a bequest to CC in your will or living trust, you are ensuring that we can continue our mission for years to come. Your gift also entitles your estate to an unlimited federal estate tax charitable deduction.

Or name CC as a beneficiary to receive assets such as retirement plans and life insurance policies. You simply fill out a form that is entirely separate from your will—which makes this approach an easy way to give. Not only is it an easy way to give, but it's also flexible—you aren't locked into the choices you make today. You can review and adjust beneficiary designations anytime you want.

Please complete and send your Future Gift Intention Form, which can be located on our giving page, to the
